

"An ExamWorks Company"

Speaker Bio

Debbie Orth, LL.B is a partner at Bertschi Orth Smith LLP and practices exclusively in litigation and insurance defence, including personal injury defence, automobile, accident benefits, property and casualty, educational malfeasance, professional liability, commercial general liability, life and disability and defamation claims.

Debbie has acted as trial counsel on catastrophic losses and has provided coverage opinions on insurance matters, including complex jurisdictional issues and the interaction of the Accident Benefit scheme with the WSIB. She has also participated in a number of private mediations and arbitrations and has argued hearings successfully at the Appeal Court and Divisional Court levels in the Ontario Superior Court.

Debbie has presented at a wide variety of legal, insurance and medical conferences, has authored a number of papers, and is the editor and contributing author of the Insurance Law Report, a periodical publication of Bertschi Orth Smith LLP.

dorth@boslaw.ca